

A decorative border surrounds the central text. The border is composed of repeating geometric patterns: a top and bottom section with a series of nested V-shapes, and side sections with a series of nested chevrons pointing towards the center. The patterns are created with multiple parallel lines.

Borders And Ancient Designs

Eliza Fegley

